The ABCs of ADA for Businesses Free Workshop on Tuesday, November 12

The City of Pasadena is hosting a free workshop for Pasadena business owners interested in learning about federal and state accessibility requirements and resources. "The ABCs of ADA for Businesses" will be held on Tuesday, November 12, 2019, at The Rococo Room (70 W. Union Street, Pasadena, CA 91103).

Attendees can select one of two time slots: 8:00-10:00am or 2:00-4:00pm. Note that both sessions will cover identical material.

This is your chance to learn what is required of businesses under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) as it pertains to physical accessibility, effective communication, and general nondiscrimination. Business owners will gain knowledge about resources and tools available to achieve greater business accessibility, including the California Certified Access Specialist (CASp) program and financial resources for small businesses.

In this two-hour workshop, you will hear from ADA experts including:

- Laney Morgado, MPA, Pacific ADA Center
- Debbie Wong, Senior Architect & CASp Program Technical Administrator, California Division of the State Architect

To attend this free workshop, please RSVP on EventBrite by selecting which time slot you plan to attend. Visit the EventBrite listing here: <https://tinyurl.com/ADAworkshop>

Parking: One Colorado Parking Structure, located at the southeast corner of Fair Oaks Avenue and Union Street – 30 E. Union Street, Pasadena, CA 91103.
