

The Pasadena Chamber of Commerce and Civic Association

Serving our members and Community since 1888

Originally incorporated as the Pasadena Board of Trade in 1888, the Chamber of Commerce played a pivotal role in the development and funding of Pasadena's schools, libraries, hospital, City Hall and the iconic Colorado Street Bridge.

In 1890, the Board of Trade helped establish the Tournament of Roses Association, which assumed responsibility for the Rose Parade. The Board raised money for the Colorado Street Bridge and proposed creation of our municipal electric and water companies.

In 1919, The Board of Trade became the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce. In the 1920s, the Chamber passed the bond measure that paid to

After 27 years of operation in New York, Honeybee Robotics opened its West Coast operations facility with the help of the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce. We decided to open a facility in Pasadena and began talking to the Chamber staff about the best site to locate our company. Within a month we moved in here. Honeybee Robotics Vice President Kris Zacny. (Quoted in the Pasadena Star-News)

The investment I made with the Pasadena Chamber has had the most impact in improving my business. I am sure every dollar I spent on Chamber membership and events has been returned twenty times over. Joseph Lee, Attorney at Law construct our civic center, the Pasadena Public Library, City Hall and the Civic Auditorium. It continued to play an important role in the city's growth and development throughout the 20th century. The Chamber was instrumental in establishing Pasadena as a headquarters city for companies such as Parsons, Western Asset Management and Kaiser Permanente. Chamber advocacy was crucial to bringing the Gold Line light rail to Pasadena. The Pasadena Chamber is a founding board member of the Los Angeles Area Chamber of Commerce and the Los Angeles County Business Federation (BIZFED).
